After 20 years of service Chief of Police Charles Bockey will be retiring from the Stephens City Police Department at the beginning of September. Chief Bockey has worked as a police officer in Virginia since 1984. Town Staff would like to offer our sincerest thanks to Chief Bockey for his years of dedication and service to the people of Stephens City and Frederick County. You will be greatly missed here in town.

We wish you a long and happy retirement.
